- Fellowship Times for April - As our worship times shift, so also will our fellowship times. These are the times that worked best for the leaders involved in each Sunday. Take a look and plan to come before worship or stay after worship (or, in some cases, both!).
April 19, 9:00 am and Celebration Sunday 11:00am
April 26, 9:00 am and 11:00 am
- Today for Celebration Sunday we give thanks to God for our lectors who are not just readers of God's Word in worship--they are ministers who proclaim God's Word with clarity and conviction. A steady diet of hearing and studying our story of faith is vital to our identity formation as God's people. We give thanks to God for you, our lectors, and for Grace Berger who leads you.
- After the 8:00 am and 10:00 am services Sunday, April 19, parishioners are warmly invited to take home an Easter flower or plant of their choosing. We hope these blooms bring continued joy and serve as a reminder of the season's blessings.
- St. Peter's will host wonderful musical guest artists on April 26. The Queen City Consort which is composed of two alto recorders and Ann Swisher on harpsichord.
- Can you spare a couple hours to help Social Concerns members when they do repackaging at Food Share? We will meet there at 5:15 on April 28. Remember that many hands make quick work. Please confirm your willingness to serve to Marsha Baumeister at 406-403-4481.
- New Member Gathering Those who are interested in learning more about St. Peter's or in becoming new members, please join us for a New Member Gathering on Sunday, May 3 at 9:00 am in the Guild Room. This is an opportunity for us to get to know you better and give you a chance to get to know us better. Bring your questions
- Our Family Promise host week has been rescheduled. We will now be hosting from May 10–May 17 at First Christian. If you're interested in volunteering or have any questions, please reach out—we'd love to have your help!
