A note A note from Pastor Robert

Hello and greetings. It is an honor and a pleasure to be with you as your supply priest today. I was ordained Lutheran after having graduated from Lutheran Theological Seminary in Gettysburg, Pennsylvania in 2006. The greater Church called me to the Montana Synod, and I was called to serve the congregation of Immanuel Lutheran Church in Absarokee, Montana. I served this congregation for nine years and after serving in parish ministry I worked as a relief chaplain at St. Vincent Hospital in Billings, Montana. I served as a relief chaplain for five and a half years. Since leaving Immanuel Lutheran Church I have been supplying at Lutheran Churches, UCC Churches and Episcopal Churches, specifically Calvary Episcopal Church in Red Lodge. The Episcopal Diocese of Montana has been very welcoming of my participation, and I am happy to serve the diocese as a supply priest. I am looking forward to serving the congregation of St. Peter's Cathedral here in Helena.
