Social Concerns

You are invited to walk the Stations of the Cross in the Nave with Fr. Scott on Wednesday, March 22 at 5:00 pm.

Please join us each Sunday of Lent at 4:00 pm for a Taizé service of meditation through music and silence.

Parents of Saint Peter's Cathedral- You may have noticed that for over two years Acolytes have been missing from church services due to COVID restrictions, as well as many of our former acolytes growing up. The presence of our children as acolytes is greatly missed. Acolytes are an important part of our church services, and this ministry gives children a wonderful opportunity to be participate in service to God.

Next week, a letter inviting children to become acolytes will be sent to parents and their children between the ages of eight and seventeen. If your child does not receive this letter and would like to be a part of this important ministry, please contact Fr. Scott Anderson or Ruth Ann Shuler.

If your child is interested but worried that they do not know how to serve as an acolyte, there will be a training session soon. We are looking forward to enhancing our Cathedral services with the joyful presence of our children participating in services.

An update from Valerie Hellermann (Hands On Global) on the use of funds raised from Last years concerts.

We visited the Protez prosthetic center. It is a joint project with 2 brothers both Ukrainian, one living in Minnesota the other here in Mukachevo. There are over 15000 amputees and they need prosthetic limbs to heal. This organization has brought over 30 to the USA for complex prosthetics . There are over 750 on the waiting list. They can do adjustments of the prosthetics here and are starting to make them here. There were men there doing physical therapy with their new limbs. One a 34 year old from a special ops unit was working so hard because he wants to return to his unit. When asked why he said because this is my country. The other man was a 22 year old adjusting to his above knee prosthesis. He looked tired and sad but grateful to have the prosthesis. AGAIN IT IS LIMB SAVING ORTHO EQUIPMENT WE BRING!!!!!!!

The sirens went off 3 times during the day. It is a bit unnerving but everyone just looks up and goes about their day. There are many people in military uniforms and many were on crutches. There is a military hospital here where Yuriy Demyan the ortho trauma surgeon provides care.

Three of us took the night train from Mukachevo to Kyiv. A little over 12 hours. It was a sleeper car but not very comfy.

Today in Kyiv, right outside the train station is a high rise with all the windows blown out from a missile. There is a line of memorials, images of men and women ,their ages and where they were from and their professions with flowers and candles lining the street near our hotel. Then a mass of flags with names and dates . So many young people so many .

It seems the city just goes about their day. The sirens went off 4 or 5 times for a short time and nobody went to a shelter. People have just learned to live with the war and the possibility of a missile attack. The war is not here but raging on the eastern front. Our hotel does have a bomb shelter, 4 stories below the main floor. We were oriented to it. We will keep our shoes, coats and passports next to our bed to grab if we need to.

Tomorrow we are meeting up with 2 trauma surgeons to bring supplies .
