“Setting Up House”

Anyone who has moved knows a new space usually requires adjustments. Perhaps the old sofa doesn't fit or perhaps you need to reconsider how many plants you REALLY need. It takes time to “set up house.”

Moving into a new role can require similar adjustments. As I am officially installed, I see this as an opportunity to “set up house” together. By that I don't mean painting the kitchen. Rather, I mean “setting up” our interpersonal spaces. How are we going to best work together for the sake of the Gospel and mutual flourishing? Here's some insights on how best to work with me:

- If you need a response from me that day--call or text (406-465-8590). I'm much slower at responding to emails.
- I am taking Fridays as my Sabbath day, though if there is a pastoral emergency, please do not hesitate to contact me any time or any day.
- Do not assume I know you are in the hospital or in need of a visit. The hospital does not contact me and I cannot mind read.
- The most reliable way to meet with me in person is to make an appointment using my online scheduler at calendly.com/kendra_wilde or ask Brittany to assist you in making an appointment.
- The work of ministry is infinite, I am not. I will not attend every committee meeting, however this does not mean I do not value or support your work and I will come if you need my attendance in particular. Please give me as much notice as possible--especially for evening or weekend meetings.
- If I have done or said something that is still bothering you after sleeping on it--come talk with me. Please. I'm not perfect. I know how to say “I'm sorry.” Our work is too vital to let it get gunked up with grievances.

I am truly honored to serve you and beside you.

The members of St. Peter's Episcopal Cathedral joyfully invite you to celebrate the new ministry of the Very Reverend Kendra Wilde
as Dean of St. Peter's Cathedral

Sunday, January 4 at 9:00
at St. Peter's Cathedral,
511 N Park, Helena, MT

by The Right Rev. Marty Stebbins, Bishop, Diocese of Montana
and The Right Rev. Ben Quanbeck, Bishop,
Montana Synod of the ELCA.

A reception will follow immediately in the Undercroft to welcome Dean Kendra and family.

All are invited to bring a palm-sized stone for incorporation in the baptismal font.

Clergy are invited to vest and process. Red stoles.
Choir dress.

Livestream available at www.spchelena.org for those unable to attend in person.

Everyone is invited to bring a stone to be incorporated into a seasonal font which we will serve as a reminder that all of us are made into “living stones” and together are built into a spiritual house (1 Peter 2:4-5) and also as a play on the pun that is the naming of St. Peter after Peter/Petros the “rock” upon which Christ built the church. Stones provided if yours are all frozen in place!

Celebration of New Ministry

by Mother Robin

A rich feast is in store for us on Sunday, January 4. We celebrate a new Dean among us!—bells, smells, and joys abounding. Not only are we installing Kendra Wilde as our Dean, but we’re inviting her to join us in our ongoing ministries as “colleague and friend.”

As we rejoice in her new ministry with us, we’ll also celebrate St. Peter’s existing ministries—many inherited from our forebears—and together we’ll renew the baptismal vows that ground each of us in Christ and his service to all.

I invite you to step into a moment of learning—a snippet of our Episcopal Church’s understanding and history of the roles of ministry, and a quick glance at the hows and whys our worship on Sunday will be different from the cathedral’s prior installations.

In the 1982 Book of Common Prayer (BCP), the one in our pews and used in our prior deans’ installations, the “Celebration of New Ministry” focuses almost entirely on the priest, with scant recognition of the ongoing ministries of the congregation into which the Dean is being invited. Unlike earlier editions of the Prayer Book, the 1982 BCP does begin to recognize the importance of the ministry of all the baptized, but it still affirms a culture in which clergy ruled! It took later 20th century research and discernment to hone and deepen our understanding. continued on page 8

Acolyte Formation and Family "Campout" in the Cathedral

Acolytes, and those interested in becoming acolytes, should please plan to join Rev. Robin Biffle and Hope Stockwell for acolyte formation on Saturday, January 31 at 2 pm. (Including Acolyte "Olympics"!) We'll follow with a family potluck supper at 5 pm, igloo building (snow dependent), games, and an indoor "campout" in the Cathedral. Parents/guardians should plan to stay over with their acolytes. Bring your sleeping gear, including tents to pitch inside if desired! We'll pack up before church starts Sunday. Light breakfast items will be available before the 9am service followed by Flipper Sunday after church. Questions? Text/call Hope at 406-558-9509

Celebration Sundays

Celebration Sundays, held the third Sunday of each month, are an opportunity to celebrate God's gifts being used in and through our community. For the Celebration Sunday in January we will give thanks for those who serve as ushers. Our ushers welcome us to worship every week, keep a count of attendees, bring the bread and wine forward, collect the offering, dismiss us for Holy Eucharist, tidy up the sanctuary after worship, and more. Our ushers are a vital part of our hospitality ministry--ensuring all feel warmly welcomed, that worship runs smoothly, and all worship attendees have what they need.

Sugarcane Faith Community

Screening

Tuesday, January 20, 6-9 PM

St. Paul's UMC, 512 Logan

Free screening of the award-winning documentary along with The Magpie Singers and a panel discussion.

About the Film

The award-winning documentary Sugarcane chronicles the Williams Lake First Nation community's groundbreaking investigation into St. Joseph's Mission, an Indian residential school, shedding light on years of forced separation, assimilation, and abuse that Indigenous children experienced at the hands of Church and government. The film also illuminates the enduring love, beauty and courage of an Indigenous community.

This initiative is part of a larger effort to encourage truth-telling and reconciliation within The Episcopal Church and beyond. The film offers an opportunity for congregations to engage with the painful history of Native American boarding schools, including our own denomination's role in this legacy.

Ongoing Conversation

A debriefing session of the film and further conversation will be offered at St. Peter's on Sunday, February 1 at 10:15 in the Guild Room.

Caution

This film is rated "R" and is not appropriate for children.

Partners

St. Paul's United Methodist Church, Covenant United Methodist Church, St. Peter's Episcopal Cathedral, and The Friendship Center are teaming up to present this powerful film.

Our Story

Anglicanism's Founding Theologian—Right Here at St. Peter's From the boiler room to the Guild Room

By the Very Rev. Stephen Brehe

He's hardly a household name, but he is very much worth knowing. Richard Hooker (c. 1554–1600), often called Anglicanism's "founding theologian," wrote one of the most important works in our tradition: Of the Laws of Ecclesiastical Polity. Next to the Bible and the Prayer Book, many consider it the defining text of Anglican theology.

And St. Peter's Cathedral owns a rare second-edition copy—printed in 1611.

How did we get it?

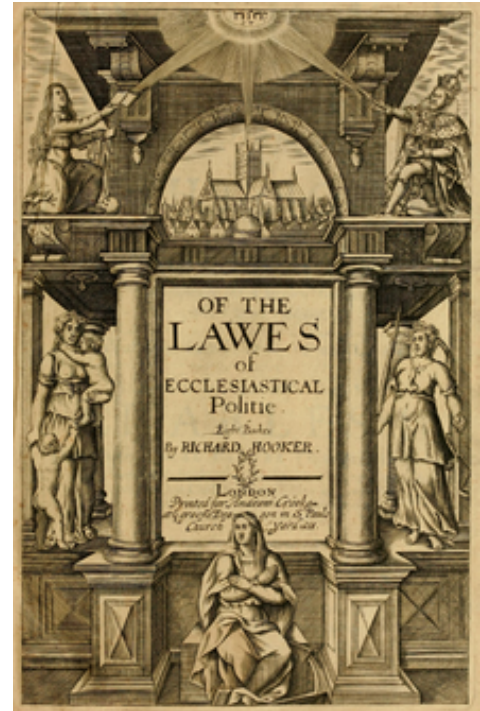

Its journey to us is almost as interesting as the book itself. About 25-30 years ago, the late Joanne Maynard discovered it in a dusty box of old books and papers in the room next to the boiler. Inside was a postcard bearing the name Henry Daniels, an Englishman who served as the first Dean of St. Peter's Cathedral (1927–1939). Dean Daniels led the construction of our present church and later became Bishop of Montana (1939–1957).

During the Great Depression, St. Peter's lacked funds to build a deanery, so Daniels lived in that very boiler-adjacent room, with his office on the first floor. Joanne and I formed a "best guess" that Daniels brought the Hooker volume with him from England. After his death, it was boxed up with his papers—and forgotten—until Joanne opened the lid.

Recognizing its significance, we moved it to a safer home. Today, it sits in a locked glass case in the Guild Room, preserved as the treasure it is.

Why is it so important?

Hooker wrote Ecclesiastical Polity in the heat of the English Reformation, a time when Puritans insisted that Scripture alone held authority and Catholics leaned heavily on Tradition. Hooker offered a wiser, more spacious vision: truth is best discerned through the interplay of Scripture, Tradition, and Reason.

Anglicans often call this the “three-legged stool,” but a modern image might be a juggler keeping three balls moving in harmony. Scripture remains the “norming norm”—containing all that is necessary for salvation and serving as the primary witness to God’s revelation. Tradition is the Church’s long conversation with Scripture, shaped by centuries of Spirit-led insight. Reason is our God-given capacity to think, weigh, discern, and apply the faith to real life, including the experiences of ordinary Christians. Hooker wasn’t trying to invent something new; he was giving voice to the Anglican via media, the gracious middle way. His work continues to shape how Anglicans pray, teach, and understand the world.

From the boiler room to the Guild Room

Thanks to the late Father Herb Buckley, the book now rests in a beautifully crafted oak display case in the Guild Room. If you haven’t seen it, take a moment to visit this remarkable piece of our story. It’s a reminder that our Anglican heritage isn’t just something we read about—it’s something we can literally hold in our hands.

In the last 50 years, church scholars and leaders—attentive, as always, to the letters of Paul and others in the New Testament, but benefitting now from new archeological and textual evidence—were increasingly attuned to the vibrant pictures of the church’s life in its first three centuries. The church’s structure in those days conformed to Jesus’ invitation, “The first will be last and the last will be first,” rather than to the hierarchical structure of the Roman empire in which the followers of Jesus dwelt.

Now, about 1,700 years later, in structuring both the church’s institutions and its worship, our leaders and liturgists strive to recapture, in word and action, that “flatter” structure of the early church. The “top-down” framework of contemporary church life and worship, as it evolved after the marriage of church and state in the 4th century, took us away from our roots in shared ministry. In the 21st century, with additional information and discernment, we’re headed back to a more level field.

Persons in all four orders of ministry in the Episcopal Church—lay persons, deacons, priests, and bishops—serve Christ as we promise at our baptism and then “with God’s help” live into those promises as we are called, “according to the gifts given them.” No order is “higher” than another, and each has its own role in the body.

You will see this modeled in the liturgy on Sunday. So come and celebrate! And the Bishop will be with us! —Mother Robin

Hospitality for Helena's Annual "Point in Time" Survey Volunteers

St. Peter's is going to offer a meal to Point in Time volunteers at the Lewis & Clark Library on Thursday, January 29.

Please sign up in the undercroft to provide a soup, bread, or dessert to be ready by 3:00 pm on January 29 or to be present at the library on the 29th from 4:00-5:30 or from 5:30-7:00 pm.

About the Point in Time Survey:

WHY: Every year HUD sponsors an annual census in every community to determine the number of unsheltered persons that reside there. The results of these surveys effect the number of federal dollars available to assist with these issues locally.

HOW: Volunteers will have access to the 25-question survey on their phones and iPads. An interview takes about 5 minutes. Volunteers will have gift cards, socks, etc. to thank people for participating.

TO VOLUNTEER to conduct the survey, email Jeff Buscher at the United Way: jeff@unitedwaylca.org Be sure to include your phone number and where you would like to serve.

Social Concerns Meetings

Social Concerns Meetings – Come join us as we meet once a month, usually the 2nd Thursday at 5:15 p.m. in Wilson Hall. Watch the Happenings for Social Concerns meeting schedule. Contact Hank Hudson (406)459-8561 or Kim Wilson (406)439-9056 for more information. Our next meeting is scheduled for Thursday, January 8, 2025 at 5:15 p.m.

Family Updates

Family 1 – Mom, Dad, son(6) and two daughters(4, 1) are staying at First Christian Church (FCC) due to the children's high needs. All three children are non-verbal and have various physical, speech, and skill therapies.

The parents stay incredibly busy running the kids to their much needed services. Dad recently started a new job! Together this couple is working very hard to provide the best life possible for their children. FP is looking for a couple skilled volunteers who could occasionally watch the children for an hour or two so that mom and dad can have a respite.

Family 2 -- Dad and 4 year old son. Dad has exited the program but is continuing to stay at First Christian until new housing arrangements are made.

Family 3 – Mom, son (7), son (5), and daughter (4). Mom has children from 7:30 pm on Wednesday through 7:30 pm on Sundays. Mom works for a cleaning service which also stages houses, teaches early morning yoga classes when she doesn't have the children. Mom is facing some medical struggles and is seeking treatment in Arizona where she has family support. Mom is currently without a vehicle but has been working on budgeting with the goal to save up for her own vehicle.

Family 4: Dad and two boys (ages 6,3). Dad has a vehicle. Dad has been Door Dashing while his shoulder is healing from a workers comp construction injury. He has the boys on weekends until he finds his own lodging. He has been applying for apartments and they are hopeful that he may find something after the holidays.

Shelter Update

Our 14-room overnight shelter construction is well underway. Family Promise is seeking partners for construction funding, programming and operations support. Their plan is to be serving those in need by Spring of 2026. Please contact them if you are interested in helping achieve this goal with your time, treasure, and talent.

Family Promise Events

Winter Craft & Bake Sales

Family Promise is holding winter craft markets at First Christian Church on the following dates:

- January 10, 2026 9am-1pm
- February 7, 2026 9am-1pm
- March 7, 2026 9am-1pm

They are asking if the churches to bake and sell baked good at this event to help support Family Promise. This is a fun opportunity for us to work together, and use our culinary talents while helping support this agency. If you are interested in helping, please contact Donna Church (406) 439-6811.

Trivia at the Brewhouse

Third Thursdays of each month. Grab a table for your group or join in with a group. Table service provided for food and drink.

- January 15, 2026 6:00 pm

St Peter's upcoming 2026 host weeks:

- ☐ February 8-14, 2026
- ☐ April 26-May 2, 2026
- ☐ August 9-15, 2026
- ☐ November 15-21, 2026

First Christian church volunteers had Santa Claus visit and give presents to the children in the program. The families highly enjoyed this activity.

Chapter News: Planning for Our Future

As you know, we are taking a moment to assess where we are and how we would like to direct our energy in the future by using a congregational assessment (survey). The tool we'll use is the Congregation Assessment Tool (CAT), which will provide key indicators of our congregational health along with areas of challenge and potential growth. It will help us to collect and understand the range of views that exist at St. Peter's and the possibilities, willingness, capacity and energy for moving our ministry into the future.

If you have provided us with a current email address, you will receive an email on January 1 with a link to complete the assessment online. If you would prefer to take the assessment using a paper copy, please stop by the office, and we will provide one for you along with a self-addressed stamped envelope.

- If there is only one email address for all members of your household, it may be tempting to have one person take the survey on behalf of the family. However, please be sure everyone who is able in your home have an opportunity to complete the survey. INDIVIDUAL INPUT is key to our gaining insight into overall perceptions and experiences.
- Please set aside enough time to answer all the questions. This will take about 45 minutes. All survey responses are strictly anonymous.
- You have until January 31 to complete the survey.

Thank you for your willingness to be a part of this congregational assessment and for helping to build St. Peter's future.

If you have questions, please contact Dean Kendra.

Chapter News: Junior Warden

Happy 2026! January will be an important month for our Cathedral and parish as we move forward into the new year. The month features four important Sundays for us:

- January 4 - Installation of our Dean.
- January 11 – Building and Grounds updates & future projects talk (during coffee hour).
- January 18 – Budget and Stewardship updates for 2026 (during coffee hour).
- January 25 – Annual meeting including Chapter recognition of outgoing members and election of new members.

Please plan on attending all events and making your voice and opinions known. You are always welcome to discuss any and all Stewardship Campaign and building/property items with me. Chris Boyce, JW

Doors Locked:

The rear & side doors will be locked just prior to the start of our service at the Cathedral, all who arrive after that time will need to enter through the main front double doors (off Park Avenue).

Call for New Chapter Members:

This is a volunteer leadership position that serves with other Chapter members to deliver our Mission of “Loving God, and our Neighbor; And make Disciples for Christ” at St Peter’s Cathedral and within our broader community of Helena/Montana. We are in need of people to step forward and bring ideas and energy along with them. Please talk with the Dean, Wardens, or any of the other Chapter members if you have questions or are interested in stepping forward.

Cathedral Keepers:

If you have abilities and interest in small projects around our buildings such as painting, organizing, or dusting, any effort is appreciated to help us deliver our Mission! Pls talk with Chris Boyce, Junior Warden, on how you can help.

AV tech/Video Editor:

Do you like technology or video editing? We are in need of more AV techs and a video editor to help with our online worship efforts. Will train you in all that is needed to know. Pls talk with Chris Boyce, Junior Warden, on how you can help.

2026 Annual Meeting Date:

Sunday, January 25th following the Service – note this is a week later than previously announced.
