Lenten Taizé begins on Friday, February 20 at 5:15 and will continue on Fridays through the season of Lent. It will be 30 minutes of candlelight, simple repetitive chant, and holy moments of silence. Decompress from the work week and welcome to breath of the Holy Spirit.

The CAT is out of the bag! Please join us in the Under Croft after worship on Feb 22 to hear the results of the Congregational Assessment Tool (CAT) survey we took in January.

Mother Robin Biffle will lead a Wondering Wednesday session on Feb 25th in the Undercroft. Bring questions to discuss. Potluck starts at 5:30.

Please sign up to help with the Lenten Luncheons. The sign-up sheet is the kitchen door in the Undercroft. Our Lenten Luncheon and Speaker series starts on Feb 26 at 12:00 in the Undercroft. The speaker will be Matthew Bishop, a senior attorney at the Environmental Law Center. Matt leads the Center's efforts to protect wolverines, Canada lynx and grizzly bears.

Plan to join us this Thursday for Lenten midday prayer (11:45 am at St. Peter's) and evening prayer (6:30 pm at St. John's Lutheran, 1000 Helena Ave). We will be reflecting on the station of the cross: "Jesus, Betrayed by Judas, is Arrested." Evening prayer at St. John's is preceded by a soup supper which begins at 5:30—you are welcome!

We have a new administrator, Lori Walter, for the Cathedral! Please be sure to drop by Wilson Hall during week, introduce yourself and welcome Lori to St. Peter's.

We are accepting donations of art for the Heart of Helena. You may bring them by Wilson Hall during the week. Thank you!
