

HAPPENINGS AT ST. PETER'S

Week beginning June 19, 2022

Assessment for the flooding at Red Lodge, Emigrant, and Livingston is still ongoing by the leadership present there. The flood waters are receding at the moment in Red Lodge. The fear is the high temperatures expected this weekend may rapidly melt the snowpack and start new flooding.

I am expecting to be in Red Lodge this weekend. My visit to Emigrant had to be cancelled this week for safety reasons. We have a call with Episcopal, Relief and Development (ERD) on Wednesday. The Foundation from the Diocese of Wyoming has checked with me and are ready to assist as needed.

Since assessment is ongoing AND we know that recovery will be long, if you would like to donate funds to the discretionary accounts at the churches, the contact information is below.

Discretionary Fund

Stuff the Bus!

2022...

We need your help this summer! In lieu of school supplies, Angel Fund will be giving monetary grant assistance to schools in the Helena area to purchase school supplies. Donations for students in need are even more important than ever. Our goal is to help 1,400 kids.

You can NOW donate on-line through PayPal for Stuff the Bus school supplies this fall:

- Donate online at:
www.angelfundhelena.org
- Or by check: PO Box 7436,
Helena, MT 59604

Thank you for your support of Helena area students for 16 years!

Giving runs through August 5

The Church for Michael, our Presiding Bishop; for Marty, our Bishop; for Scott, our Dean; for our Deacons, Rick, and John; for Holy Trinity in Troy, and Jill Wilson, the Senior Warden.

The Government for Joe, our President; for Greg, our Governor; for Jon, Matt, and Steve, our members of Congress; for Wilmot, Kelley, and Mike, our local area mayors; for the Supreme Court, our judicial system, and all governmental entities.

Learn, Bake, and Eat - Ezekiel Bread
Saturday, June 25, 10:00 AM to 12:30 PM
A light lunch will be served.

Join us and 8 or 9 of your friends (or friends you haven't met yet) for the third in a series of events that connect biblical lessons and stories with contemporary foodways; particularly foods grown right here at home.

We will be hands on with ancient grains grown in Montana's Golden Triangle; direct descendants of those that were grown and eaten more than 2000 years ago.

What is unique about the bread God instructed Ezekiel to make? It's made of small amounts of six different grains representing the dribs and drabs left in the bottoms of baskets and other containers, including pulses, wheat, and millet. The result is a particularly nutritious bread.

We're limited to how many sets of elbows we can get in the kitchen at the same time, so sign up today! Plan on getting flour dust in your hair, perhaps making a new friend, and learning how to make a new kind bread.

Allergen alert: This is not a gluten-free event.

Permission to podcast/ stream the music in all services obtained from One License with license #A-700000, and St. James Music Press ID# 21549.

Hymn permission used by Rite Song a one-time use reprint license for congregational use.

When you enter a St. Peter's Cathedral worship service, you will be entering an area where video recording may occur. St. Peter's Cathedral makes video recordings of members involved in church services. Staff and/or participants may use such video records to recall activities or participants. In addition, such audio/visual recordings may be used in St. Peter's Cathedral's for the streaming and website hosting of worship services. By entering the service premises, you consent to video recording and its release, to be used for live streaming by St. Peter's Cathedral. You release St. Peter's Cathedral, its clergy, church officers, employees, laity, and each and all persons involved from any liability connected with the taking, recording, digitizing, and/or publication of video recordings. By entering the service premises, you waive all rights you may have to any claims for payment or royalties in connection with any exhibition, streaming, webcasting, or other publication of these materials, regardless of the purpose. You also waive any right to inspect or approve any video recording taken by St. Peter's Cathedral or the person or entity designated to do so by St. Peter's Cathedral. You have been fully informed of your consent, waiver of liability, and release before entering the service/ event.
